

GATHER INTIMATELY WITH SRI'AMA QALA FOR 4 DAYS IN A SPECIAL WAY

AT THE EASTER DIVINE PRESENCE RETREAT 22ND-25TH APRIL 2011

A RESIDENTIAL RETREAT AT GUNNEBAH RETREAT CENTRE, NNSW

You are invited to attend a very special intimate retreat – a retreat into your heart and Divine Presence in the company of international teacher and sage, Sri'ama Qala Phoenix. This Divine Presence Retreat is designed to support your soul to connect deeply inside, with the truth held within your heart and soul and your Divine Presence regarding a specific area of your life that presently needs love and transformational healing.

“To be gifted to be able to guide souls into higher states of love and Divine Connection with their Divine Presence and the Enlightened Ones is a great gift and blessing which I have been given for my service with humanity and personal transformation. It can truly be a profound experience, if a soul gives themselves the time to retreat and truly receive.

Learning to do the inner work in a complete way, when we meet obstacles on our path, requires a soul to be held in a higher state of consciousness for a period of time. Many people do their inner work during their everyday lives, whilst in a lower state of consciousness and are therefore unable to truly take the time to enter the deepest connection of their heart which is needed for success with the inner transformation of their consciousness. When the inner work is created from a higher state of connection, the transformation is felt inside deeply and immediately. It is so powerful that it can liberate and open doorways that originally felt fully closed, and lead to experiences in areas of a person's life that have only been dreamed of before.

Healing is possible for all souls, within all matters of their life, if they take the time out to retreat into their heart deeply, receive divine energy and make the deepest level of contact with the love and truth of their soul and their Divine Presence... and focus only on one area of their life at a time.

To be able to complete your inner work is essential for success on the spiritual path, for once your inner work is complete, the outer transformation reflects the inner, and always manifests with love and ease and grace. Always you will feel your life flowing and evolving with the love and light of their Divine Presence when a complete transformation has taken place within your consciousness and energybody. This is the purpose of the Divine Presence Retreat! It is a divine experience which also offers you a loving intimate path to the completion of your inner work, for that which you have been aiming to create as an outer transformation in your life ” - Sri'ama Qala

ABOUT THE DIVINE PRESENCE RETREAT

The 3 or 4 Day Divine Presence Retreat is Sri'ama Qala's most personalised training as it is offered to a small intimate circle, and specifically for those that wish to learn to create their outer transformation via creating their inner transformation in a joyful and loving way. It is usually only offered once or twice a year, and always offered in different areas of the world.

With the love and support of your Divine Presence, Sri'ama Qala and the Enlightened Masters, you will be guided on a deep fulfilling journey where your energy and consciousness will be raised, powerful inner truths will be revealed, and inner transformation will occur through the core of your being. This inner transformation is needed for the outer manifestation of transformation in your everyday life experience.

You will be guided through 3 very deep sessions over each day, which will create the inner work for your soul and Divine Presence to meet and inner transformation to take place. After each Divine session, you will journal from different states of consciousness that you have been supported to reach in that session, on specific questions and focuses, enlightening your mind and soul with the wisdom and truth that your Soul and Presence reveals.

As you are held in the arms of the Divine Mother and Divine Father with Love and Compassion, and enlightened energies in a Temple of Love and Wisdom, you will receive Liberation as you are guided on a personal deep journey of loving transformation and illumination purely for your Soul's happiness, and for the manifestation of a Divine Transformational Shift within your chosen UNIQUE PERSONAL FOCUS for your Life.

Over the retreat, all gathered will also be offered the time to receive Divine Assistance with this area of their life, directly from the Akashic Records, via Sri'ama Qala, and the Enlightened Masters visitations. All will receive time to make a deep personal connection with Sri'ama Qala during meals, breaks, and the evenings together and at the end of the sessions. The retreat is designed to be intimate, for working with this small number of people allows Qala Sri'ama to offer Divine Assistance to every individual, allowing the group work to support a much greater extraordinary shift within.

The retreat is designed to support you to create your inner transformation of ONE SPECIAL AREA OF YOUR LIFE, and Sri'ama Qala shares the retreat program will be as deeply healing as having one full day of personal sessions with her Presence.

The Divine Presence Retreat is only being held once in NSW, Australia in 2011, so if you are seeking intimate sessions and the highest level of personal support from Sri'ama Qala in 2011, this retreat may be the answer for you

CHOOSING YOUR UNIQUE FOCUS FOR THE RETREAT

This personal focus may be any one single focus or area of one's life experience. Sri'ama Qala recommends working with the area of your life that you have the most daily struggle with, as this struggle drains your energy most, closes your heart the most. Therefore when this is refocused to a positive light via the Divine Presence Retreat Journey it will enhance and transform your everyday life the most.

Some examples could be based on your:

- Partnership;
- Finances;
- Love and Intimacy;
- Relationship with child or mother etc;
- Communication issues;
- Career;
- Sexuality;
- Addiction;
- Health;
- Peace or Clarity of Mind - Emotional Balance;
- Spiritual Connection/Channel;
- Soul Mission as a writer, healer or teacher, as examples;
- Divine Presence Mission or Keepership.

Everyone in this intimate circle will be supported to choose one focus that resonates deeply to their heart and also is aligned via universal law, and realistic for them to have a transformational shift with, through the focus of 4 days of work with the Grace of God, Divine Presence and The Enlightened Masters. All that you receive over the 4 days, personally and in group, will be honed to support the unique personal focus to develop.

WHAT WILL YOU RECEIVE?

- A DIVINE EXPERIENCE

You will receive a deep, intimate, authentic spiritual journey with like-minded, loving people, and blessings for your life, Divine Love, and grace. The Divine experience of sitting in a portal of Enlightened Frequency so that you may do your deep inner work of transformation with an open heart and truly enjoy this sacred and necessary work. The Divine Presences of many will be present with you and you will be filled with immense waves of love and blessings and dispensations as their loving assistance to your transformation

- CHAKRA DEVELOPMENT

During the retreat, you will be guided in relation to your chakras; Sri'ama Qala will share with you - which chakras need to develop for the development of your consciousness in regards to your unique personal focus. All will receive from the Enlightened Masters, powerful assistance to develop these specific chakras so as to increase their size and strength. This is essential for a soul to be able to hold the new consciousness and transmit positivity, love and Divine truth regarding their unique focus.

As many of you know, one's chakra system is the bridge between the spiritual, mental, emotional and physical planes and the growth in size and strength of the chakras is the key to our Soul's liberty from the wheel of karma, the grounding of love, light and empowerment, and the development of gifts and Presence in life. A transformation of energy within these chakras and their growth in size and strength is essential for a shift to take place in the area one has chosen as one's focus.

- CONSCIOUSNESS DEVELOPMENT AND TRANSFORMATION

Specific journeys, teachings and the Journal process support this consciousness shift to take place. You will be receiving from the Enlightened Masters and Sri'ama Qala, a deep journey of receiving your higher self connection or connection to Presence. You will receive guided journeys for the creation of your inner work of transforming the old consciousness (most unconscious aspects) that are held deep with one's chakras and energybody, creating self sabotage or a disconnection to the love and light of your Presence within this area of your life.

This will be very deep work, and a deep exploration of honesty with your self will be needed to create this. This will be the highest frequency work and everyone will receive profound support for this, but the primary key ingredient will be honesty with self as this will allow the shift to occur as one is guided to shift in consciousness deeply. You will be journaling after each session, from higher states of connection, about the truth your soul and presence holds inside, regarding specific questions and issues.

- KARMIC CLEARING OF INNER ENERGY BLOCKAGES AROUND HAPPINESS

All individuals in the group will receive information related to their unique focus and its connection to their karma of happiness or unhappiness. The information regarding one's karma will be offered to support every person to have full awareness as to whether any forgiveness is needed of anything, karmically, to bring about the shift in a way that will also create happiness on a soul level through this transition and change.

As a group, all will be taken on a deep soul journey and will be guided and supported to let go of any obstacles with love, that may be holding one back in any way or creating a lack of happiness in life related to this unique personal focus. A deep personal healing will take place on a soul level and on a spiritual level to allow the new manifestation to take place with happiness. New choices will be made, on the inner and these will manifest a new emanation of consciousness into your energyfield and everyday life.

Blessed be, blessed be, blessed be all beings!
