Over a period of three hours, many aspects of your life are supported you to move into a clear and deeply empowered place with yourself so your life direction can flow in unity consciousness and build clearly in the physical and spiritual planes as you build your life through receiving guidance via the love of your heart and light of your mind.

Empowerment in the spiritual and physical planes manifests through the flow of your soul's love and light through all of your chakras. This pearl is offered to you to support you to gently shed all that does not serve you, and ignite the core power within your being for the blessing of your whole life ahead. Imagine your life in an empowered state and all that you would achieve and experience!

This Golden Pearl of Empowerment offers you a journey into the core of your empowerment issues, where you place your energy, share it, what drains it and what supports it to grow, how you use your energy and how to use it to a higher benefit for your fulfillment in life and the fulfillment of your life direction and life purpose.

The important areas of your life are gently looked at and you are assisted to integrate any unresolved energies with the major aspects of your life so that all of your personal power can be accessed and illuminated with positivity.

Blessings from twelve enlightened masters are offered to you, and as you are introduced to these twelve enlightened guides, they will bring the golden pearl of empowerment to you specifically to ignite your personal training in Divine Presence. The information you receive over three hours will be a gift to assist you for the next year of your life in relation to your personal empowerment. You will be invited to call on one of these enlightened masters to receive sacred assistance and divine energy for the next year of your life for further balancing and development of your personal power in accordance to the personal program they offer you through the 3 hour session.

The Golden Pearl of Empowerment would benefit anyone who wishes to truly live in a fully empowered state personally in life, and they are either connected to themselves and their core energy, or have a clear giving loving heart in life. This pearl may be received by anyone who wishes to receive it, but those who have already either resolved blockages to their heart and flow of love, or made a deep connection to their innerself and core energy and their essence or light, will benefit 100% from what this Pearl wishes to gift a soul for the fulfillment of their life or highest potential destiny. It is highly recommended that anyone who is not able to feel love in life deeply, or connect to their innerself and trust oneself deeply, receive either The Golden Pearl of Light or The Golden Pearl of Love before receiving the Golden Pearl of Empowerment.

The Golden Pearl will be offered to you over a three hour period, through the phone or in personal connection to Qala Sri'ama. Some time, 2 days prior to your time together, Qala Sri'ama will spend time in communion with your soul and Presence with the Enlightened Masters to prepare for this meeting, and with the information you provide through your registration for this pearl, she will be attuning to your energy and the highest potential for you, during these two days. This Pearl has ripple effects for the next two years of your life and will benefit you deeply for one year solidly. The guidance given to you may be taken slowly over a period of the next six months of your life, to fully bring your empowerment wholistically to you deeply.

On completion of receiving the pearl, you will be assisted to integrate this over 42 days, each time you re-listen to the audio recording of the Pearl. It is recommended you re-listen to this audio recording five times after receiving it, during a 42 day period of integration. Each time you relisten to this, more assistance will come to you and a greater level of heart opening and resolution and self empowerment will occur for you.

On completion of the six week integration, you are asked to relisten to the recording at least once a month for the next six months to further ignite your empowerment in your daily life.
